

GYMNASTICS WORKPLAN

As of February 16, 2016

(as prepared by Gymnastics BC)

Woman's Artistic Gymnastics

1. Competition Format

Day 1: Combined Level 7 and 8 teams
All Around competition Level 7
All Around competition Level 8
Day 2: Apparatus finals (top 8 after day 1, plus up to 2 athletes)

2. Equipment

Equipment requirements are as indicated in the JO BC Guide.

The height of vault and beam can be adjusted as indicated in the BC – JO document.

Vault: Any height, from lowest to 135 cm

Beam: 110 or 125 cm

A supplementary mat minimum 10 cm (sting mat) is required for landing of the dismount. A safety mats (20 cm) may also be used. Safety mats may also be used under the rails on bars. Boards, if needed, may be placed on the 10 cm sting mat or 20 cm safety mat.

3. Competition Order

The competition order is in appendix.

Groups of 9+ athletes will be split for warm up. Groups of 8 will warm up in one group.

4. Selection for Finals

The top 8 athletes on each apparatus after Day 1 qualify for finals on that apparatus. Up to 2 athletes according to Zone representation may be added on each apparatus. According to BC Games rules, athletes must have activities planned every day. If an athlete does not qualify for any apparatus final (she is not ranked in the top 8 on any apparatus following day 1), she will still be assigned to one apparatus final in a zone representation spot. Coaches of these athletes will be consulted so they can be assigned their best or second best apparatus.

5. Awards

Team Award (Day 1): top 4 scores of 6 team members are used to calculate the team totals. Wildcards are excluded from this calculation.

All Around awards are awarded after Day 1.

Apparatus awards are awarded after Day 2.

6. Activity Sunday morning

As requested by BC Games, an activity has been organized on Sunday morning.

The WAG, MAG and Rhythmic athletes and coaches will have a flexibility workshop. The workshop will be held at the KVR Middle School from 9:00am to 10:00am for female athletes.

7. Bodysuits for Finals

Gymnasts must wear the zone bodysuit for the team competition on Day 1. However, they can wear any bodysuit on day 2 (finals).

8. BC Games fee payment

BC Games has not yet invoiced GBC for the payment of the athletes' fees. The registration fee is $175 per athlete. GBC will invoice the Zones next week.

Men's Artistic Gymnastics

1. Competition Format

Day 1: Team and All Around competition

Pommel Horse: Mushroom or Horse with NO Pommels

Vault: Any height, from 110 cm to 135 cm

Parallel Bars: Any height to a maximum of 180 cm

Supplementary mats are available as needed and permitted in the Provincial Pathways document.

3. Competition Order

The competition order is in appendix.

Groups of 9+ athletes will be split for warm up. Groups of 8 will warm up in one group.

4. Selection for Finals

The top 8 athletes on each apparatus after Day 1 qualify for finals on that apparatus. Up to 2 athletes according to Zone representation may be added on each apparatus. According to BC Games rules, athletes must have activities planned every day. If an athlete does not qualify for any apparatus final (he is not ranked in the top 8 on any apparatus following day 1), he will still be assigned to one apparatus final in a zone representation spot. Coaches of these athletes will be consulted so they can be assigned their best or second best apparatus.

5. Awards

Team Award (Day 1): top 3 scores of 4 team members are used to calculate the team totals. Wildcards are excluded from this calculation.

All Around awards are awarded after Day 1.

Apparatus awards are awarded after Day 2.

6. Activity Sunday morning

As requested by BC Games, an activity has been organized on Sunday morning.

The WAG, MAG and Rhythmic athletes and coaches will have a flexibility workshop. The workshop will be held at the KVR Middle School from 10:00am to 11:00am for male athletes.

7. BC Games fee payment

BC Games has not yet invoiced GBC for the payment of the athletes' fees. The registration fee is $175 per athlete. GBC will invoice the Zones next week.
